of Asato 72 on a small plant in a can. A few days later I found it sheared at the graft with the bottom barely hanging and wilted. I re-worked the graft and although the plant lost all its healthy foliage, it is now making a come-back. Fortunately I had another plant but I didn't know it at the time. It too has now bloomed. Today I have to plant my first seeds from a Florida variety, a pod from Rose Marie.

Sincerely,
Bob Runyon

The young mother was entertaining her bridge club on April 1st when little Dorothy burts into the room.

"Oh, Mother!!" she cried. "There's a stranger in the kitchen and he has the maid in a corner, hugging her!"

"Good heavens!" exclaimed the hostess. "You'll have to excuse me for a moment, ladies. . ."

"Don't go, Mother!" screamed little Dorothy. "April Fool! It isn't a stranger at all - - it's only Daddy!"

-O-

No, Lulu - - you're wrong again. That peacock isn't a chicken in bloom.
